MRS. PALMER GIVES UP BADGE.

PLACID COURSE OF WOMAN'S SHOW INTERRUPTED.

Mrs. Palmer Had Sald That the Streets of Venice Was a "Mere Midway"-There is Trouble, Too, Because Exhibitors Sold Tickets to Speculators.

The placid course of the Woman's Congress at the Madison Square Garden was terrupted yesterday by trouble. Part of occurred at the Professional Women's League clubhouse in West Forty-fifth treet and the rest at the Garden. There was no surprise that discord had already asserted itself. The wonder was that i had not been heard of before. Trouble is usually due at the beginning of affairs in charge of the Professional Women's It rarely waits until the second

Mrs. A. M. Palmer's denunciation of the Streets of Venice as a mere Midway with all that young word has come to imply aroused the members of the P. W. L. to such an exrent that they called a special meeting vesterday afternoon. Mrs. Edwin Knowles. the president of the organization, did not attend, and "Aunt Louisa" Eldridge, who is willing to take anything in the cause of harity or trouble, took the chair. Mrs. F. L. Fernandez said that Klaw & Erlanger were so much impressed with the manner in which the fair had been arranged that they wanted the league to manage the sakewalk soon to be given at the Metrolitan Opera House in aid of the Theatrical Managers' Association. She thought that vindication enough of all that the P. W. L. had done to make the show a success. Maude Banks and other members of the club spoke of their complete satisfaction at the way in which Billy Brady had looked after the fair and they all stared hard at Mrs A M. Palmer, honorary president of the league when they said how very, very orry they were that one of their members have expressed such an opinion the fair as Mrs. Palmer did. This was too much for Mrs. Palmer as the only one that represented her ide of the argument, and the sentiment of the meeting was against her. So she rose and walked majestically down e president's bench.

" she said as she laid some-ore Aunt Louisa's astonished eyes edout of the room. by Mrs. Fernandez the meeting a body to the President's desk, y Mrs. Palmer's badge and the realized that she had resigned. The trouble at the garden came from the fact that exhibitors who are entitled to a certain number of tickets for their found to have sold a number of them to speculatiors.

William Brady said that twenty-three ticket speculators had been arrested last eek and that it had been impossible to e tickets. Then it was found that hold of the tickets. Then it was found that hold of the tickets. Then it was found that the exhibitors had been selling part of their daily allowance, which the specutheir daily allowance, which the specutheir daily allowance. were destroyed yesterday, and new ones will be issued to-day. DAVIES'S EMPHATIC DENIAL. Didn't Offer $1,000 to Have Prohibition ists Indorse His Candidacy.

UTICA, Oct. 13.-Attorney-General John Davies, candidate for Supreme Court Judge in this judicial district, is out with an emphatic denial of the charge made by C M. Pitts of Oswego, that a $1,000 bribe was offered to him (Pitts) to have the Prohibition judicial convention indorse Davies's candidacy or delay action on the adorsement of the independent nominee, Watson M. Rogers of Watertown. Mr. Davies says:

fieldy false, in so far as I am concerned. I have seen something of the report, but I know nothing about it. I am not a Probibitionist, nor do I even know the Judiciary Committee of the party, appointed to fill a vacancy. Isn't it ridiculous? Such an accusation is too weak to stand. It is one I know nothing about it. I am not a Proaccusation is too weak to stand. It is one of the pieces of mendacity that I seem to be up against in this campaign."

The charges, coming at this time, will probably prompt Attorney-General Davies to follow the matter further and call for proof, and i it is not forthcoming, to hold

ALBANY, Oct. 13.—The Prohibitionists odeavored to file a certificate with the ary of State indorsing the candi-of Watson M. Rogers of Watertown for Justice of the Supreme Court in the Fifth Judicial district. The Prohibition party in that district made an original nomion for Supreme Court Justice, nominee was Alonzo M. Leffing-of Watertown. After this certificate was filed Mr. Leffingwell declined the nomination and filed his declination with the Secretary of State. The commitee appointed by the Prohibition convention vacancies, thereupon voted to indors Mr Rogers, who is the independent Republi can candidate, nominated by petition to oppose the regular Republican nominee Attorney-General John C. Davies of Cam-

on. Oneida county.

The Secretary of State refused to file the secretary of state retused to the the second Prohibition certificate indorsing Mr. Rogers, in accordance with the precedent established on Saturday, when he refused to file the certificate of the Pro-Idiationists indersing John Cunneen of Buffalo, the Democratic candidate for At-torney-General. This decision is based upon that provision in the Election lav which prohibits a party from indorsing the nominee of another party for the same office except through an original nomination. The Prohibition vote in the Fifth Judicial district is 2,718.

LEFT OUT HILL'S COAL PLANK. kings County Democratic Orators to Be shy of Government Ownership. *Issues of the Campaign of 1902 Plainly Stated from the Democratic Standpoint is the title of the Democratic text book published for the guidance of Kings county platform speakers. The book was given out last night at a meeting of the speakers held in the Thomas Jefferson building,

It carefully avoids the plank in the Democratic State platform calling for Government ownership of anthracite mines. This plank, David B. Hill spent several hours in defending and presenting to the people of Kings county at the Academy of Music on Saturday night.

At the meeting of campaign speakers comission of the plank was commented upon with considerable surprise. It was the general opinion, however, that it was Bird S. Coler's wish that the plank be handled if at all as gingerly as possible. When it is possible to avoid mention of it the wish of Mr. Coler is that it be ignored. No instructions about the coal plank were given to the speakers unless as above.

Less Challenging This Week. President Voorhis of the Board of Elections said yesterday that, at his suggestion, and after a conference with Commissioner Partridge and Superintendent of Elections McCullagh, certain modifications would be mid in the order to the police to assist in challenging voters. He said:

"I have asked that the police be requested to exercise judgment and not to do as Mr. McCullagh seemed to request in his letter—challenge every person in ertain districts who had changed his address."

Mr. Voorhis said the

And, What's More, I Can't Get It-An Open Air Talk With Coler. The Hon. Hugh McLaughlin says he

hasn't been caught by the dazzling United States Senatorial fly which the Hon. David B. Hill is credited with having dangled before his eyes.

"This is a silly story," he said, "that I am going to be a candidate for United States Senator-if the Democrats carry the Legislature. The Democrats can't carry the Legislature. If they did I wouldn't go to the United States Senate. If I could find a man who could prove that he really believed I would, I'd give him $20,000.

"These reasons they give are nonsense. I've been a good many years here in Brook-I've been a good many years here in Brook-lyn, always living in Democratic districts. I've never felt any ambition to be a law-maker. If I had I might have been elected to the Legislature. I've got my home here now, just as I want it. I'm going to live in it the rest of my life. I wouldn't change it to be a United States Senator or anything else. I couldn't be induced to go to the United States Senate under any conceivable

This is Mr. McLaughlin's reflection on the reduced registration in his bailiwick during the first two days:

"I went down to the booth in my district and registered myself. I've heard them talking about the registration one way and talking about the registration one way and another, but I don't know anything about it. As for me, I registered, as every Christian ought to register, for our fine young bemocratic candidate for Governor, Mr. Coler. I suppose if the devil registered he'll vote the other way."

Mr. McLaughlin and his fine young Democratic candidate had a long conference on the dinay auction room vestration was a supposed.

COLER TO THE DUKE OF ESSEX. Bird Would Chirp on the East Side if Campaign Committee Would Let Him.

When Joe Levy, the Duke of Essex street. appeared on the street vesterday morning he wore a silk hat, a sack coat and tan shoes and carried a huge black cigar between his teeth.

As he passed a group of the members of the Essex Market Bar Association who were sunning themselves on their sidewalk offices. Spike Rosenbloom said, "Good morning,

"Say, I want youse fellows to know one thing," said Levy. "Me name from dis out is Mister Levy."

He went on and into the Martin Engel saloon. The Duke's sudden dignity was TAMMANY FINDS MARE'S NEST In Goddard's District-Senator Grady Brings It Home.

Senator Grady took to Tammany Hall yesterday a letter which had been captured by the Democracy and which the Tammany Campaign Committee thought was a great find. It was sent to one of the Republican district captains in the Twentieth Assembly district by Capt. F. Norton Goddard, the Republican leader of that district. The letter says:

letter says:

DEAR SIR: It was agreed in executive session that each captain should send in a list to Mr. Houlahan, the secretary of the club, of about forty names for his district. I am sure you will know what I mean without curther explanation. If you haven't handed in your list to Mr. Houlahan won't you do it by Monday night next at the latest. Very truly yours. Telling Bird Sim.

A thousand invitations are out for the official notification to Bird Sim Coler and the other candidates on the Democratic State ticket at the Tilden Club, Seventyfifth street and Broadway, to-morrow evening. The Committee on Notification will meet at the Democratic State headquarters at 7 o'clock and proceed to the Tilden Club. Mr. Stanchfield will make the address to the candidates.

Ex-Register Howe Decimes.

Ex-Congressman and ex-Register James R. Howe has declined the Republican nomination for Congress in the Second district in Kings county, owing to the pressure of his business interests. This district, as well as the Seventh, is overwhelmingly Democratic. The vacancies will be filled o-day or to-morrow.

G. N. Y. Democracy's Certificate Filed. ALBANY, Oct. 13 .- Secretary of State McDonough has found that the Greater New York Democracy's independent cer-tificate nominating the Democratic State candidates complies with the law, and has filed the certificate. The certificate contains 7,900 signatures.

Tammany Notifications.

The Tammany candidates for the Su preme Court will be notified of their nomiertain districts who had changed his address.

Mr. Voorhis said that Mr. McCullagh had concurred very heartily.

NO ODELL TOUR BY SPECIAL. A WORD TO FARM TOILERS.

HE WILL TAKE THE REGULAR TRAINS ON THE STUMP.

No Extraordinary Session of the Legislature Likely-Register! Register! Is to Be the Burden of the Republican Campaign for the Rest of This Week.

Gov. Odell, it was announced yesterday, has decided not to make a speechmaking tour through the State on a special train. There had never been any positive decision to send him through the State on a special train; it had been merely a suggestion put forward by Republicans who remembered the stirring campaign which Theodore Roosevelt made in the closing days of the '98 fight. The Governor has decided to make speeches in a number of cities of the first and second class, and also to visit some of the country spots; but this will be done on regular trains and in the regular way. The Governor believes that a good part of the campaign should be made in the cities, as he feels assured that the Republican vote in the country districts is solid as a brick church.

The Governor will decide within a day or so just where he is to make these speeches, and in the meantime Major Lafayette B. Gleason of the Speakers' Bureau at the Fifth Avenue Hotel camp is receiving hourly requests for the Governor to visit almost every inhabited part of the State. These requests are to be laid before the Governor for his decision.

Col. Dunn arrived from Binghamton last evening, and had a consultation with Senator Platt. There will probably be no further talk about an extraordinary session of the Legislature. Col. Dunn also had talks with President Robert C. Morris of the New York Republician County Committee, and William H. Ten Eyck, chairman of the Executive Committee of the County Com-mittee. All three decided to work hard on Friday and Saturday for a much larger registration than occurred on Friday and Saturday last, not only in Greater New York, but all over the State. Col. Dunn is to devote his entire time this week to getting the voters out to register on Friday and Saturday. In some of the upstate districts the registra-tion has been fairly satisfactory, but the Colonel believes now that the best work that can be done is to bring out the voters and have them register on Friday and Saturday next. Col. Dunn said:

"I am very anxious that our Republican friends and all interested in the Republican State ticket should come out and register.

on Friday and Saturday next. The appeals cannot be made too strong for then to do this. There are reports of apathy in certain parts of the State, and our Re-publican friends should be awakened. By this I do not mean that I am not confident that we are to win on election day, but I believe in winning the battle all the way down the line and making it as big a majority as we can.

"It is this way: If we are to have 50,000 majority in the State, and my efforts this week and the efforts of Mr. Morris and Mr. Ten Eyck and Mr Woodruff and the others can make it 51,000, it is our duty to do so. All of our work from this time on until next Saturday night will be directed toward getting the Republicans and all who believe in the Republican ticket out to register.

FIRST NOONDAY RALLY Crowded-Job E. Hedges Speaks on the Coal Strike.

The first of the noonday meetings organzed by the Commercia, Travellers' Republican Association, which will be continued daily until the close of the campaign, was held yesterday at 456 Broadway. Large as is the floor space which the association has rented, many were unable o gain admittance to the meeting.

Job E. Hedges was the principal speaker One sentence of his address which aroused prolonged applause was: "Any party which prolonged applause was: "Any party which strives to win a campaign on the suffering of any portion of the population deserves not only overwhelming but ignominious defeat."

He also said: "I do not believe in the coal mines being operated by the Government. But I do believe in the right of any man to stop work if he wishes, just as I believe in the right of a man to work if he wants to. There ought to be no power in wants to. There ought to be no power in this country, which can prevent a man working if he wishes to work. I believe, too, that men who own property should be secure in their right and allowed to have control of their property."

Citizens' Union Neutral.

A declaration of neutrality was made last night by the Citizens' Union. After a meeting of the City Committee at the Union square headquarters a statement was given out that the union stood by its rescution of last May to make no nominations The statement added:

While the union fully realizes the import-While the union fully realizes the importance of a pure judiciary, yet, inasmuch as the election of judges and other county officers is under the present ballot law inseparable from the State ticket, the union's determination to take no part in State or national politics would be seriously compromised by any action relative to the judges in this campaign.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

The Home Friend of the Farmer and His Family in the Autumn Season.

After the labors and toils of the summer time, and harvesting of crops in the early autumn, many of our farmers, their wives, daughters, and sons, find themselves in a condition of health demanding careful attention if suffering is to be avoided later on. Many experience kidney trouble in some form; with some the liver is torpid; there is biliousness, nausea and vomiting, with loss of appetite and depression of spirits. Thou-sands who have been exposed to cold, damp winds and rains while toiling in the harvest fields, now feel the twinges of terdown by rible rheumatism; others run rible rheumatism; others run down by worry, overwork and irregular dieting, are tormented with the pangs of dyspepsia.

To the thousands of rundown, sickly and half-dead men and women in farm homes we recommend with all honesty and confidence the worker's friend, Paine's Celery compound, the only medicine that can quickly and fully restore strength to the weak body and vigor to the muscles. Paine's Celery Compound tones the stomach; it removes poisonous acids from the blood removes poisonous acids from the blood which cause rheumatism; it feeds the weak and diseased nerves and banishes neuralgic tortures; it purifies the blood and gives true vitality and life. The use of Paine's Celery Compound in autumn means the establishing of a perfect physical vigor to withstand the rigors of a severe winter.

hummund BIRD INSISTS ON SINGING?

TALK NOW OF LETTING HIM HAVE A SPECIAL TRAIN.

What He Will Say and How He Will Say It Are Questions That Amuse His Acquaintances Hill Criticised for Taking the Centre of the Stage.

A startling report got abroad in the Hoffman House last night to the effect that Birdie would chirp in the State after all. The report went on to say that Birdie would insist upon whirling through the southern tier and the Mohawk Valley on a special train; that he didn't care whether he could make a speech or not, he wanted to show himself. He wanted to have the glory of being known as Mr. Hill's candidate for Governor.

All who were at the Saratoga convention are convinced that if the convention had been let alone Mr. Coler would not have had forty votes in it. But Mr. Coler doesn't mind a little thing like that. He wants to show himself. He wants the applause "o listening Senates," and so forth, and He is hard at work presoforth. paring himself to meet the audience n the Tilden Club to-morrow night when he is to be notified that he has been nominated for Governor. It is his present intention, though, to whirl through the State on a special train and peep, peep, peep, as to the glories of Democracy and the turning over of the coal mines to the Government. Coler believes that he now understands what that plank really means.

Democrats at the Hoffman House yesterday said that Mr. Hill had made a grave tactical mistake by making a speech at the Academy of Music four days before the Academy of Music four days before the candidates of his convention were formally notified of their nomination. They said that Mr. Hill made it plain to the opposition that he was the great Head Centre of this campaign and that Mr. Coler was second. The Democrats were fearful that the opposition would make it plain to all of the voters that Coler is Hill's candidate.

that the convention was Hill's convention and that the notification ceremonies to and that the notincation ceremonies to-morrow night are Hill's notification cere-monies and not Coler's. Mr. Hill devoted 99 per cent. of his remarks to the platform which he wrote one week before he went to Saratoga, and 1 per cent. to Coler, who he had insisted should be the candidate for Governor, despite the fact that 95 per for Governor, despite the fact that 95 per cent. of the delegates were opposed to

It all bears out what Mr. Hill said at It all bears out what Mr. Hill said at Saratoga. It is not men this time: it is issues. So he jumps in and makes a speech at the Academy of Music on the issues, and winds up with a few remarks about Coler. As one Democrat put it at the Hoffman House last night, "Coler is thus made to look like a rat-tail file in a barrel of water."

The Rapublican were adjusted because The Republicans were delighted because Mr. Hill made that speech. In their esti-mation he came right out in the open and made it plain to all the State that he is the master of the Democratic situation. This is the first time in their estimation that Mr. Hill has come out in the open since 1894, when he was the stampede candidate for Governor of his party, and maybe the voters of the State didn't do a thing to him that

But what will Birdie say if he goes through the State on that special train? That was on the lips of all sorts and conditions of Democrats at the Hoffman House last night. What can he say? And if he de-cides to say anything, can he say it? These were other questions. Certainly the diences will be treated to the most Certainly the auimitable speeches that were ever made by a candidate for any office, from Governor to poundkeeper.

SENATOR NELSON FOR MINERS. Thinks Operators' Attitude Toward the President Insulting.

DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 13.-United State Senator Knute Nelson of Minnesota, who is stumping the State for the reelection of Gov. Van Sant, discussed the coal situation in an interview here to-day. He said:

"The attitude of the Pennsylvania coal mine operators and coal railroads toward the President of the United States has been insulting and overbearing. The attitude of Mr. Mitchell has been just and correct. He was willing to submit the issue to a committee of arbitration appointed by the President, while the other side has played President, while the other side has played the dog in the manger. I think, under the circumstances, it is the duty of the American people to extend their moral support to the mine workers. We cannot afford to have any railroad or coal operators set themselves above the public or the nation's Chief Executive."

CUBA INDIFFERENT TO TREATY. CONGRESS TO ADJOURN WITHOUT

GENUINE

ACTING UPON 1T. The Treaty Was Negotiated by the Cuban Minister in Washington and Provided for Carrying Out the Obligations

Contained in the Platt Amendment. WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.-Word came by elegraph to the State Department to-day from Herbert G. Squires, United States Minister at Havana, that the Cuban Congress had agreed to adjourn on Oct. 20. This means that no action will be taken at the present session on the important general treaty between Cuba and the United States, which undertakes to provide for carrying out pledges given by Cuba in return for the work of the American Government in freeing the island from Spanish rule, establishing order and administering the insular affairs for a period of more The irritation of the Roosevelt Administration over the indifference shown by the authorities of the republic to the obligations assumed toward the United States through the adoption of the Platt amendment was recently mentioned in a Washington despatch to THE SUN, and while it would be beyond the fact to say that the statements contained in it were in spired, it is not going too far to say that there was a feeling here that its publication might serve to remind President Palma and his advisers of the strong desire of this Government that some attention should be paid to the general treaty which was negotiated by the Cuban Minister in Washington in behalf of the republic. The indifference of the authorities at Havana is attributed in Washington to the ill-feeling among the Cubans caused by the failure of reciprocity legislation, but in view of the earnest efforts of Presi dent Roosevelt to secure aid for the island it is felt here that the insular Government has no reason to show a spirit of vindictiveness toward the United States. There is much talk in official circles about Cuban ingratitude. More pressing matters of immediate concern have served to overshadow the Cuban situation among members of President Roosevelt's Administration, but that it will be given serious consideration very soon, with a view to determining the course to be pursued to bring Cuba to a realization of her obligations, is regarded as certain.
